Peter’s second epistle by all accounts commended Paul on his letters to the churches, and added that other scriptures described the fate of those who are unstable, and will not grow in knowledge. (2-Pet 3:15-18) Peter’s epistle did commend Paul by the way that it was written in the KJV, but Peter contradicted himself in the same chapter. In a close examination of these verses, it is seen that this was written at some time after Peter became aware of Paul’s dispensation doctrine. (Acts 21:21)

The theologians that oppose the viewpoints expressed here will often use Peter’s passage as a primary point to defending Paul as a trusted member of the Apostles. This can be a stumbling block if the KJV translation is used, but deeming the significance to grasping the truth, a very precise examination is warranted. Peter normally wrote with clarity and direct accounting of his position, yet his passage stumbled on clarity at this point that was so crucial in the direction of the churches of current theology. (2-Pet 3:16)

Peter expressed that the Gentiles will be given a simple following, but they must grow in the knowledge of the Torah statutes, that are delivered in the synagogues. (2-Pet 2) His letter covered the corruption and misdirection that some ministers and false prophets were teaching, and expressed that this was to exercise their own covetous practices. He gave examples of the destruction that men imposed upon themselves by inventing their own worship practices that turn from the commandments. Then he warned of corruptors that have deceived many that will be sorted out in the final days, and for this we should keep our righteousness (following the laws). When Peter finished the epistle prologue, he seemed to strangely fumble the words around the part saying, “salvation as Paul has written you”. Peter knew that Paul had taught the offensive misdirection that all the commandments were old and gone away and even argued the point within the council of the Apostles and elders. (Acts 21:21, 2-Pet 3:15-18)

Learn to recognize these incongruities in the text, and verify the wording with the original manuscripts. Apparently the translators could not make comprehensive sentences from these verses, or they may have intentionally misdirected the readers to validate Paul. Compare these two translations of the critical portion of Peter’s letter, which have very different results.

2-Peter 3:15-17 (original KJV)

15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;
16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.
17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stead fastness.

The following interpretation by this author uses the same version of the original Greek text, with the most prominent selection of definitions, instead of the KJV third or fourth alternate wording, which is rarely done in the other verses.

2-Peter 3:14 -18 (correctly-written from the Original Greek)

14 Therefore beloved, things look (seek to) be diligent without spot and blameless by him, to be found in peace.

15 Also the of Lord Master of us patiently delivered to lead. (Apostles taught to lead) Just as also the beloved of us, a brother Paul; according the given to his wisdom wrote to you. (Paul trained by Pharisees, taught as a Pharisee)

16 Also in all letters, speaking in them of things in which are hard to understand. One which the untaught also unstable; distorted as also they pervert scriptures unto the own of them (their own) destruction. (Distort in Strong's, Pervert in e-sword)

17 Ye therefore, beloved, knowing in advance, keep watch so that not to of wicked error having accommodated (by evil error), you may fall from the (your) own steadfastness.

18 Grow but in grace also knowledge of Lord of us (Yahweh), also Savior Yahshua, to him the glory, also now also for day of age (and in the ages).

The re-translated statements should clearly justify the concern over Paul's influence. Peter states that Paul, by his own wisdom, which is untaught and unstable; has perverted the scriptures to their own destruction. This is the essence of the entire debate of the covenants and commandments that are removed only by quoting Paul and Titus (Josephus), with their dispensation doctrine. (2-Pet 2:2, Gal 2:16) Dispensation (removal of Mosaic Laws) was never taught nor approved by the Prophets, Yahshua, or Apostles.

 Responses say; Denying Paul is denying of Faith! **

Remember that 2-Peter chapter 2 equates the actions of Paul as the story of Balaam; the prophet that was forced to bless Israel. (Numbers ch22 thru ch24) But then he taught the heathen to vex Israel. (Numbers ch25 and 31:16)

Apostles considered Paul beloved (Prince of Israel); but a dangerous Rogue Preacher. The Bible is "Word of God" AND accurate history of those who led others astray!

The following two pages are from the Greek Interlinear translations that match with the Latin versions. All the Greek versions are nearly identical, so picking the most exacting source should have a minimal effect on content. This author, S. C. Buren, of theorybin, retranslated the Greek text to English, and placed each translated word, immediately following each Greek word. This allows discerning 'skeptics and students' to verify every word with the source.

In essence; Paul was teaching the Pharisee Doctrine, with the addition of a messiah. Paul twisted the scriptures by the worship of Jesus, and excluding Yahweh & the Laws. Peter taught that those who follow Paul's perverted doctrine Will be Deceived.

Rev 19:10 worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.
