Here are 21 Biblical questions and topics that people of the various denominations ask. These questions are from email discussions on the Theoryin documents, & some of those searches brought long sought answers to clarify some confusion.

Q-01 The Church in America has been afraid to ask questions. Doubt has been demonized and this has done considerable damage.

For a basis of my studies, I went to 50 churches in my area in a 4+ year period, to get a first hand view of what was actually taught in each establishment. There was one fundamental question asked of every preacher and every assistant that would speak with me; “If you found something in the Bible that did not fit your doctrine, would you change your doctrine?” This was not a trick question. We discussed some issues at times for months, where I faithfully attended every event, and donated abundantly.

Some places it was difficult to start a serious discussion, but when in a discussion, I would detail that the Yahshua was not born in December, and Easter was a holiday of the fertility goddess Ashtar.

In every case, the answer was NO; they would never change their doctrine (traditions) to fit the Bible. They were locked into doctrines that defined their specific denomination. In some cases, a leader or assistant would ponder the studies and ask others. In all those cases, they were immediately pulled into conference for re-indoctrination, and often warned never to speak to me again. When convinced they were unreachable, I moved on to next location.

America IS ASKING questions, but the Church is giving rhetorical doctrine answers that are confusing to the un-indoctrinated, for they are obviously contrary to many scripture studies (A form of hypnotic instruction through repetition that I call Hyper-babble). The truth IS available, but not taught in ANY Church, Synagogue or other that I have found.

The damage done; is the fantasies and fairy tales have been exposed. The public knows they preach fantasy, but the Churches continue to block a change from their dedicated business model which is their doctrine. Many of which are overly devoted to daycare. I don't recall anything to the scriptural message about daycare!

The Temple was established as THE place for priests (Kohan family) to honor God directly in His presence, and follow His judgment to manage life situations. They (Hebrews) were to do all work to maintain the priests, and pass this knowledge on to others (Strangers) that accepted the Laws of God. No other place is to emulate the sacrifices in the Hebrew Temple; each place is to have a Kohan priest that comes to the Temple annually, or for special need to represent (atone) their flock. The Temple no longer exists, so all are doing as they see fit. (The ONLY local sacrifice is Passover, and that must be done completely)

The Temple was plundered and destroyed by other nations that could not understand why they were not allowed in the Temple. They took offence and it enraged them.

Note: Not all priests are honorable; even High Priests have turned against their people.

Q-02 Rediscovering the person of Jesus of Nazareth.

This may sound odd to a majority of Church patrons, but they must seriously consider. The name Jesus is Greek. Yahshua was and is and will always be Hebrew. There is no letter in the Hebrew language with the sound of Jay or Gee. His name was Yahshua, or Yahshuah or Yahushua, somewhat like Joshua with a “Y”. This is amazing that Churches and music can go for centuries praising his name, yet many I spoke with have never heard, nor do they recognize his real name.

The same case is for the name of God the Father, giving praise in the name of God. His name is to be Honored Forever, yet it is never ever spoken or known in those places. Yahweh is not a secret name, but it is a sacred name. (Malachi 1:6) The KJV gives one name YHWH which is Yahweh or Yahuweh. The group where I attend in Florida is “Congregation of Yahweh.” We commune each Sabbath day, with a variety of speakers of many denominations. Then we discuss and relate doctrine differences, and usually expose the flaws, which are almost always tied to standard rhetoric, dogma, cannon law, and the references to Paul, or some modern teacher. (We do listen to their view)

Q-03 Images and dates.

Images perceived are some of the most notable first impressions of a Church. The third and fourth commandments were to avoid all images or idols for worship. Yes there have been images fashioned to perceive the person whom they seek. That is never to be done in the studies of religion, as people will visualize that image when they worship. The vision will be in their mind as they seek Yahweh’s help, or praise received help. The image between our eyes is to be the Law. If we seek Yahweh’s presence, we are to seek by His measure that will speak to us in His way. Does your Church fit that pattern or do they look for an image or idol or flag or symbol?

One favorite message parallel was around 2-Maccabees 12:40, where Judas Maccabeus had battles against tremendous armies that came to plunder the Temple and cities. He won all battles against many thousands, greatly outnumbered, with few to no losses. Then one battle he won with miraculous help, but sustained losses. The next day they went to pick up their dead, and found that every one killed, had a consecrated idol under their coats.

The message being that Yahweh will not honor those that seek images or idols and this is never taught as fact, in a Cross and Image laden Church. So many have searched and pleaded and cried over their pictures and tokens, and Yahweh stated He will turn away.

The 1st century dates commonly quoted are often perpetuated inaccuracies. Look at the timeline at the end of this letter to see the true sequence of events. The books were not written 40 years later. The Temple was not destroyed 70 years later.

Josephus states he is 16 when Saulus & Antipas plundered and killed all those listed attending group gatherings (at Sermon on the Mount), the year after Yahshua was baptized. Josephus went through those crowds and took their names to tax them, but Saulus & his father & uncle used that list to call them out. (A very interesting and important story of Acts 8:1-4, starting in Autobiography 2, and Antiquities 20.9.4)

Yahshua was executed on his 34th lunar birthday – Lunar charts put the death Passover as April 11 or 13th. He was born on Passover, the 3rd year of 187th Olympiad, which was March 29 or April 1st, and we know how the Church ignores his true birth day.

Two dates of each are given, as there are two ways to start the lunar month, with moon centered dark, and moon reappearing; a 2-day difference. There are Critical Flaws in Fall Birth dating, for Herod-I died that same year on the day after the Day of Atonement.

Josephus was 26 when He and Paul met Caesar Nero in Rome, after their shipwreck. Nero died his fourth year, but Paul was killed within one year, unless he was jailed twice.

The Temple was destroyed (ma47), six years after Josephus met Nero, 2nd year of Caesar Vespasian, this is documented and attended by Josephus. (47 yrs after Yahshua’s birth)

Josephus was 56 on the 13th yr of Caesar Domitian, and his books end at his age 60. Yet all historians say he went to 90 or even 120 by speculation.

Q-04 Many are confused if Messiah is God, or son of, or died to atone their sins. Many affirm he was a prophet, temple & torah centered, mono-theist, choosing Jews over all.

My studies have no problem with a virgin birth. Miraculous massive healings and such were done in an instant, so seeding a single cell egg is comparatively simple.

From Genesis to Micah, we were told that Yahweh would send one that will not break a reed, but will witness the corruption. Yahshua had the knowledge of Angels and the Spirit of one too. In the last page of the Bible; John fell to his knees to worship the Angel and Yahshua said; do it not, for I and the prophets are servants. Worship Only God.

What was the purpose for Yahshua's horrifying death?

The first Angel, was given charge in Genesis at the Garden of Eden, and failed miserably. And many of his followers left their post, and did their will, corrupting the earth.

Yahshua was tested to see if he would do all things unblemished. His reward is the kingdom, where he will be the king of kings. (That is what he and the Bible actually says)

The Strangers (Not born of the Hebrew); also in the last page of the Bible; only those who follow the Law may enter into the kingdom and have access to the tree of life.

The 144 thousand are the Hebrews of 12 distinct tribes, which will live in the king's city and maintain all the needs of the city, just like the tribes in the desert.

The Strangers that honored the Laws will live in countries around the earth, with a king. They will send honorable gifts and support, and annually have access to healing from leaves of the Tree of Life, IF they continue to follow the New Law, the New Covenant of the Millennial Kingdom. That simple message has been misconstrued thousands of ways.

Q-05 The Scientific aspect of a Paradigm Shift in Denominations.

Very good point, There are so many directions of the multiples of denominations.

In our group in Florida, there are some that tried to convince me that the earth is flat. (My background is in physics & electronics) I thought they were joking, so I made some flakey remarks. (My former Navy training) I was quickly corrected, by our leader, that we will not ridicule others beliefs. We will encourage instruction, but not in a negative way. (He is great at keeping the peace)

One problem is: They will not listen to facts or logic or proof of any kind. (Ignore-ance)

That is possibly how others view my findings, though mine are loaded with facts; and my findings are fully displayed and open for discussion. My searches do not ignore an opinion or fact until it sufficiently researched and reasoned or explained.

Q-06 Trinity – three in one God.

It is my understanding that there is One and Only One Holy God, and there never has been, nor ever will never be another.

Yahweh has assigned the Kingdom of Earth to one that He tested for the task. And Yahshua will work in council with 12 Patriarchs and 12 Personal Friends.

The Angels are also with us as witnesses and possibly brothers of Yahshua, and I do not know their position in the Millennial Kingdom, but they are notably above all men.

The others of the Host of Heaven and the Angels are the Spirit of Heaven that we must honor and never dishonor. They are witnesses and workers of the Miracles of every day events on earth; that follow and watch us continually. They report to the Seven Angels, who have direct access to Yahweh at all times.

As far as three in one;
They ALL have the same view, the same will, the same goals, and work as one with One Leader.
That is my view direct from Bible pages; The Church view is radically different.

Q-07 The early Church did not teach of God that became man

Good point again, with exposing the rhetorical teachings that build into new doctrines.
My understanding is; Yahshua was of the Angels that became man, with God's approval and plan to test his anointing to the Millennial Kingdom.
On a personal view: Wouldn't we show more trust to a King's judgment and empathy, that has experienced our hardships and has always done what is right, more-so than one who has had a corrupted past or never felt our pains?

Q-08 Role of the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essines.

These were described in detail in Josephus, but he decided to use the courts and the priests against all but the Pharisees during the Greco – Roman occupation of Judea.

The Pharisees are originally from Egyptian priests (Pharoh's Seers) that came into power with Seleucius the Greek; that conquered Egypt and Syria as a General of Alexander. Then his grandson Antiochus Epiphanes placed his priests in the temples on every high hill.
In Yahshua's time, Agrippa – Herod's Sister's grandson, was raised in Rome with Caligula. When Agrippa went to Judea to replace Herod Philip, he could not speak the Hebrew language. So he sent Herod Philip to fetch Alexandrian (Greek) Priests to replace all Jerusalem priests. These were the Pharisees that ran the Temple in Yahshua's visit. Agrippa's interpreter was Simon (Barnabas) who was son of Cypros (not Cyprus).
Cypros is the grand-daughter of the sister of Herod the great, a cousin of Agrippa.
Note; This Alexandria was in the Aegean sea between Assos and Troas, where Paul walked over the mountain to receive the Letters from Titus - Acts 20.

Q-09 The Zealots of "Palestine?"

Judas Maccabeus would have been a Zealot; as he believed Judea to belong to Israel and not the occupying nations. It was those that sold out their nation for opportunity, and turned it over to Rome and Syria; that lost the nation's individuality. Judas did make a treaty to join Rome's legions, but they never helped him against Antiochus or Syria.

Not sure how the "Palestine" label got into your text. That is essentially a modern term that seems to come from the period when England hired France to build the Suez Canal, and some British colonel coined the name as he was mapping the territory in 1869. (Not certain of why that name was accepted)
This was always the land of Israel before they went to Egypt, and since Exodus, before they were forced to do 40 years in the desert. It was occupied by 13 to 17 evil nations; one of which was Philistines of Gaza.
For near 35 to 37 hundred years it has been Israel or Judea. Abraham was given the land of Canaan in Creation Year cy2047, which was 3917 years ago as of 2018.

Q-10 Hellenized Church adopted an Anti-Jewish doctrine calling it Gospel.

Right on target. That is why the Jews will not accept Yahshua as the Messiah. They are told by the Church that they have to accept him their way, and eliminate Laws. This they will never do and should never do.

But the Church is guided by the wrong books. They should know that Yahshua Never spoke against the Laws. That change in the Laws viewpoint is exclusively the Pauline Doctrine, from the books of Paul and Titus (Titus Flavius Josephus).

The Chosen People; is of the covenant with Abram, to raise a nation of priests to carry the Law of the people. You do not have to be of the priests to follow the Laws, but ONLY the priests will maintain the Temple and do sacrifices of (from) the people.

The word Gospel is only in New Testament, so Jewish teachings are foreign to this view of their religion. Also, I am cautious when asked of my view of the Gospel, as that word is tied to every denomination, as their viewpoint of their doctrine. The Torah Laws are the True Gospel of the Bible, but do not label it as such, for it is known as the Torah Laws, the five books of Moses.

The Shema quote is of the Testimonies and Obligations of the people of Israel from Deuteronomy chapters 6 to 13. These Laws are also for the Strangers, in all but priest duties.

Q-11 Yahshua sent to the lost sheep of the nation of Israel

Yahshua came to witness and teach that the Pharisees of the Greeks had led the nation astray. The Temple was for priests of Yahweh, not of Rome or Syria or Greece or other. Their manmade laws and traditions (Talmud & others) have stepped away from the leadership of the Laws of Yahweh.

Yahshua came to teach Israel, not the pagan nations. Israel could then guide the nations.

Q-12 Christian teachings that Jesus was the final sacrifice

Good delivery. The fuel for the "Final Sacrifice" is mostly Paul and Titus.

It is my understanding, that the Millennial Kingdom will be the end of sacrifices. The last sacrifices will be done by the two witnesses of the last 7 years. They will do it right, and know where to find the original Ark of the Covenant.

The 7 year Tribulation ends when the 2-witnesses are taken to Heaven and the Ark is then seen in HIS TEMPLE. (Rev 11:11-19) And THEN Yahshua will come for the Elect.

Arrival is the Day after the Day of Atonement October 11, 2024, which at sundown the 12th starts the Traditional Day of Atonement. This is on a Leap Year, thus spans one year, month, day & hour from 2nd Woe.

Q-13 Jesus had a Temple Centered Faith

Absolutely; He was sent to confirm the original teachings, and to witness they had gone astray. He taught to reject the traditions that were not of the Laws, and turn back to God. He could not teach the Pharisees, as they were Greek & none were Hebrew.

Q-14 Healing the Leprous man & Passover

Yahshua healed the man of leprosy, and several others in one book. But only one that returned from his offering to the priest to praise him, was then healed of the whole body.

Yahshua honored Passover and told them to do this forever. The three commanded Feasts are to be followed by ALL people that follow the Laws. That is part of the Law; to honor Yahweh, His way.

Why are we to honor the feasts his way? This is the promised time that Yahweh will visit each and every one that follows his laws. If you do a feast correctly, then you will be in face to face conference with many people who you do not know. This is how he visits us unaware. Take it seriously, as I have personally recognized uncommonly perfect visitors with profound words, and also very evil ones trying to redirect.

Q-15 Are we viewing 1st century in 21st century theology lenses?

Stepping into philosophy is not my forte, but re-think the last paragraph wording. The Muslims are more insistently pious than the common American, but that is from training and repetition in their traditions. Also Moslems & Muslims is the same word, but not sure which is more common.

Q-16 What would Yahshua think of a modern Church, and what did early church think.

Truly the modern church is pagan worship near completely. They have the truth in their hands, and cannot follow without twisting the stated phrases.

What the early church thought comes in two answers. The Hebrew followers that followed the Law had no difficulty in separating from the Pharisee rules. These were traditions stated in the Talmud, which were man made and rejected by Yahshua.

The Pharisee and Pagan Europe had always followed and forced trends of the Emperor. The Pharisee were of Greece, and few of them were Hebrew. They were placed in the Temple by Agrippa, and killed the priests or anyone that rejected them. They were a pagan temple at that time. The righteous Jews had to work around them and accept their ways, to keep the Temple from being destroyed again by the occupying nations.

Q-17 What the followers thought of Yahshua

Not sure of what the general public knew, but the Apostles were well aware of a miraculous birth. They also thought he was the end time coming to wipe out all sinners. Remember always that the Mosaic Laws of Yahweh is our guide; that we are to use as frontlets to our eyes.

Q-18 The word became flesh, from John 1:1-14, and the church beginning.

The Word is Flesh; is a very artistic analogy. Yahweh promised to send a Messiah, and he made it flesh. He kept His Word True as He said He would, by sending Yahshua. This has been grossly misconstrued to say that Jesus is the God that created all things. Do not twist the words into some new statement. Nothing EVER changes of the Laws and Statutes of Yahweh. Some additions and details are added for clarification, but the purpose is unchanged. The New Millennial Laws will probably end all sacrifices for offerings. Laws then will be refined for a peaceful planet. (Speculation Only)

Mark, Revelation, 1st, 2nd, & 3rd John were written by John Mark – they all use exactly the same phrasing and wording from the same author.

The book of John was written by Nicodemus, writing the words of the first Apostle, which was either Anthony or Philip. I suspect it was Philip as he had the only story.

The book names & sequence were placed centuries later. These books were not written decades later, that viewpoint of Essiguus came out around 520AD. Essiguus started our modern calendar at 530AD by counting back to the birth of Yahshua. He was only 105 years off, because he used Olympiads and counted them at 4 year periods instead of 5 year periods. (Yahshua born 187 Olympiad; last Olympiad 293 did not finish = 105)

The new Church beginning is a strange mix of history undocumented in real time to the people they are choosing.

The documented portions done decades or centuries later, use different people that are not of the New Testament, and magically associate them with the Apostles. The only valid historians of that time are Josephus of Jerusalem, Apion of Egypt, Tacitus of around Rome, Suetonius of Rome, Philo of Greece, and the letters of the Caesars. I have not found any valid pieces in Vatican literature that accurately use the First Century Historians.

Q-19 Writer of Acts and James view of Paul

Luke and first chapter of Acts were written by James of Zebedee that was killed by Agrippa who was then to kill Peter.

James' books were taken by Josephus (Titus) and edited.

Josephus (Titus) dedicated Luke and Acts to Theophilus, his mentor that lived with Herod Antipas in Caesarea. Theophilus is mentioned several times in Antiquities as the High Priest that was replaced when Agrippa put Greeks in the Temple, Simon Boethus was his first replacement, and three more in three years.

Josephus changed Luke lineage of Yahshua to include Canaan. Paul wrote to Titus that he did not care about the lineage, and what new laws he wanted to add to Hebrews.

Then Josephus wrote Acts chapters 2 to the end. (notably different author for chapter one) Then Acts 20 brought the books Luke and Hebrews to Paul in Troas. Near the Temple of Zeus at Alexandria in modern Turkey near Athens.

Your article did not cover your impression of James view of Paul completely.

But certainly Peter was no fan of Paul, as he wrote that this man has twisted the remaining scriptures to the advantage of destruction. (read 2-Pet 3:15-18 in original Greek)

James had him in conference with the committee that wrote letters to the other synagogues. Paul & Barnabus had added in their letters that they do not agree with the synagogues ambassadors on circumcision. And therefore their request is not the decision of the council. Thus he nullified the church requirement. (Acts 21:21) But the rest of the council did not know what he had written until reports came back from the church. And that is when Paul was evicted from the Temple.

Q-20 Continuing debate of James

I was not aware that Martin Luther had declared James' epistle invalid. I have heard pieces as rumor & teaching, but not in reading; do not have that source to verify.

Q-21 In the First Century; Was Romans a direct address to the public, or an introduction to the Senate?

One large key to the period is the study of Caesars Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, Nero, Vespatian, Titus, & Domitian, all within Josephus Antiquities – others Galba, Otho, & Vitellius only lasted one year for all three. – Josephus PDF is on my theorybin website.

When Paul was discovered in the Temple, to be “the leader” that taught the Gentiles to stray from the Laws. They hauled him out to be stoned. He was saved by the Roman troops, quelling the disturbance. The captain was in fear after learning who this man was that he had prepared to flog. He sent him at night with troops to the Palace of Antipas.

 Herod Antipas was Paul’s father. - - Meaning Paul was a prince of the family of Herod.

 That is why the captain was in fear. - - His prisoner was IN LINE to be the next king.

 That is why Apostles appeased him & to cleanse him in the Temple instead of shunning a rogue minister.

Paul was essentially in house arrest at the palace of Herod Antipas in Caesarea for two years before he was on trial by Festus & Felix, and seen by his cousin Agrippa II. This place was essentially the college, coliseum, and political center of that region.

Paul knew Caesar Claudius and Titus Vespatian that later tore down the Temple. Titus and Domitian, sons of Vespatian, all were Caesars in later years, and Nero killed Claudius to become Caesar.
(note: Caesar Tiberius is also called Nero)

When Paul asked to be sent to Caesar instead of Jerusalem, he was intending to see Claudius. But when he got there, Nero had just crowned himself and was eradicating friends of Claudius (eliminating his enemies). Then Paul shows up after his shipwreck and sees Nero instead of Claudius.

 The book of Romans was written by Titus Flavius Josephus – who also went by the name Tertius. – All but the last chapter were pre written letter of introduction, possibly mailed ahead of arrival, and chapter 16 was public introduction to Caesar Nero with the audience of the senate that knew his family very well. (He was sent there for trial with request to see Caesar, a request that cannot be altered!)

Romans 16:22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

(Titus Josephus was present at the trial with Nero. – Josephus Autobiography 3)

3868 Tiberius Caesar retires on 12th year of 23 year reign to Rhodes, leaving proxy authority to Caius Caligula & Claudius Germanicus as Caesars under him (Annals 1.53, Wars 1.20.1, Antiq 18.6.1, 4)

3871 Anointing Baptism of Yahshua “about” age 30, the 15th year of Tiberius. (Luke 3:1, 23)

Josephus listed names of all rebels gathering in the wilderness, to tax them (Sermon on Mount Mat 5,6,7)

Vespatian, impressed with the tactics, invoked Josephus with property and royal privileges. Vespatian’s sons

Titus & Domitian dignified him as Titus Flavius Josephus (Autobiography 76)

Herod Philip visits Rome, lodged with Antipas, and returns with Antipas’ wife Herodias. Philip’s wife

Mariam, sister of Herodias, and her grandmother Bernice, aid Antipas with Syrian army that defeats Philip’s army. (Antiq 18.5.1) (Mariam also spelled Mariamne)

Agrippa-I in Rome, tried convincing Caius Caligula, that his statue should not be placed in the Jerusalem Temple. But Gaius (Caius) insisted, for their neglect of dignity to Caesar.

Insisting to place Images in Temple & Herod's war create Jerusalem rebellion

(Antiq 18.8.1-9, Tacitus Histories 5.9, Philo 42, 43)

3873 Rebellion ends at 194th Olympiad, when Caligula is assassinated his 5th year by Germanicus guards in Rome, who declared Claudius Germanicus Caesar as Emperor, his residence in Alexandria. (Antiq 19.1.14, 19.2.1, Philo)

Herod Philip completes building the Cesarea Coliseum after ten years, and inscribed Agrippeum on the entrance gate, to honor his friendship with Agrippa, and consecrate Olympiad combat and races to Caesar every 5th year. (Antiq 16.5.1, Wars 1.21.8)

John the Baptist taken by Antipas & beheaded on Philip's celebration for the whim of Herodias and Solome. (Matt 14.8, Mark 6:25, Antiq 18.5.2)

Claudius sends Vespasian from Alexandria to Antioch as President of Syria. Vespasian promotes his son Titus to lieutenant in the Judean Army and gives Agrippa-I the kingdom of Herod-II of Chalcis, Antipas, and Philip. Vespasian sends Philip to fetch Alexandrian priests to replace Jewish priests in the Temple. (Antiq 19.5.1-3, Suetonius Vespasian 4)

(Greek Alexandrian Priests were needed, because Agrippa did not speak Hebrew)

Simon-Barnabas was interpreter to Agrippa, (Antiquities 20.7.2, Acts 8:9-24, 12:21, 24:24)

3874 Agrippa-I removes Theophilus and places Simon Boethus as High Priest, then Jonathan, then Matthias, then Joseph Caiaphas over his three year reign. (Antiq 19.6.2, 19.8.2)

Theophilus of Antioch was Josephus' Tutor, to whom were books dedicated by Josephus (Antiquities 17.4.2, 18.5.3, 19.6.2, 20.9.7, Apion 1.23, - Dedicated Books - Luke 1.3, Acts 1:1)

Claudius demands all Jews depart from Rome, and published edict forbidding Jews to assemble in synagogues, for refusing statue of Caius Caesar in the Temple. (Acts 18:2, Antiq 18.8.2, 19.6.3)

Agrippa-I enlarges Caesarea and adorns with Jerusalem artifacts. (Antiq 20.9.4)

* Yahshua Sacrifice cy3875 ****

Using Astronomy: 14th Evening of 1st Month = April 9th or 11th depending on Month Start

3875 Yahshua crucified 1st month at Passover on his 34th Lunar Calendar Birthday, after 3.5 years of ministry (42 months from Shavuot Baptism cy3871). (Matt 27, Mark 15, Luke 23, John 19, Antiq 18.3.3)

Mathias elected Apostle 1st month, Stephen accused by Alexandrians in 7th month, purging of Messianic Jews by Antipas, Costobarus, and Saul. (Acts 1, 6, Antiq 20.9.4, Wars 2.17.4)

Saul warned by Spirit at Damascus, sent to Tarsus, spends one year in Antioch with Barnabas. (Antiq 18.3.5)

Tiberius banishes Judeans from Rome, sends Vitellius to Judea, to remove Caiaphas and send Pilate to Rome for inquiry. (Antiq 18.3.5, 18.4.3)

Alexandrians take control of temple as Gamaliel's son Jesus kills High Priest Jesus Damneus, for refusing Greek traditions in the Temple. (Antiq 20.9.4) (Gamaliel was Paul's Tutor Acts 22:3)

3876 Herod Philip dies on the 20th year of Tiberius as Vitellius sends his head to Rome by order of Tiberius, for using troops to settle his quarrels with Antipas. (Antiq 18.4.6, 18.5.1)

Barnabas and Paul anointed with powers for 3.5 years by John Mark on Paul's first journey in (Agia-Asia) the Aegean Seas of Greece. John Mark separated from them at Paphos to return to Jerusalem. This was when

John wrote Revelation. (Acts 13.3-5, 13)

In capture of James and Peter, Josephus acquires James' book (Luke) to edit for Theophilus. (Acts-1, 12:1-4)

Barnabas is called to return as Agrippa's interpreter, & informs him 10th day vows are honored. Agrippa on Day of Atonement dies after speech saying he is immortal. (Acts 12: 21-23, Antiq 18.5.3, 19.8.2)

Paul winters with Herod-Antipas, in spring he meets Josephus with books in Assos by Alexandria, then traveled to Rhodes to meet Tiberius. (Acts 21:1, Titus 3:12)

3878 Tiberius dies 37 years after Antony, 22 years as Caesar Augustus. (Antiq 18.6.10)

Caesar Claudius Germanicus is now Caesar Augustus (Antiq 18.6.10)

Felix sent to govern Judea as Procurator on 12th year of Claudius Augustus. (His 10th yr as Caesar)

Paul tried in Caesarea and given freedom within the palace for two years. (Acts 23:23-27, Rev 2:13, Antiq 20.7.1)

3880 Josephus wrote Antiquities Book 12, Chapter 7 on this year (Antiq 12.7.6)

3881 Festus visited Felix, and asked Paul if he would be judged in Jerusalem. Paul said that only Caesar Augustus should judge him. After many days, Agrippa-II visited and agreed that Paul should be sent to Caesar Augustus. The book of Romans was written to announce Paul, and the last chapter details the formal delivery given to Caesar and the Senate. (Acts 25:8-12, Antiq 15.11.4)

Two ships of 600 men sailed the Aegean Sea and parted courses, one going above an island, and one below. Josephus & Paul are shipwrecked on the southern course, with 266 men on the island Malita, and arrive in Sicily in spring the next year. (Acts 27:37, Josephus Auto 3)

3882 Paul and Josephus arrive in Rome without the anointed powers that were given to Paul by John Mark, 3.5 years earlier. Josephus is age-26. (Autobiography 3) (041ma)

Paul had expected to meet his friend Caesar Claudius; but Nero took office by killing Claudius, thus Paul did not get the greeting he had expected.

Note: In all of Paul & Josephus' books, there not a single message or quote from Yahweh!

Rome is allowed to burn by Nero, and blamed on Christians and Jews. Then Edicts proclaimed it unlawful to follow Christian religion. The following Statement may have been fabricated

Paul was beheaded with a sword, while Peter suffered crucifixion. (Tacitean Chronicle 2.29.1-4)

Sulpicius Severus of fifth century, claims this Beheading is from the Lost Tacitus Annals

3884 Titus formed Legion 15 from Alexandria, serving under his father, General Vespasian, to plunder Galilee for Nero, assisted by Josephus. (Wars 3.4.1-2)

3886 Caesar Nero kills himself when attacked by Galba. (Wars 4.9.2)

Titus pays homage to Caesar Galba in Judea. (Tacitus Histories 1.11)

Three Caesars die in one year; Galba, Otho, and Vitellius. Each murdered by the next.

3887 Vespasian is Caesar 10yrs, to age-69, father of Titus & Domitian. (Seutonius, Tacitus Histories 5.10)

3888 Titus purged Judea of their superstitions, by killing all that would not surrender, and destroying the Jerusalem Temple and all associated structures except the towers. He was assisted by Josephus, in the second year of Caesar Vespasian. (Wars 5.13.6, 6.4.8) Calculated 197th Olympiad Note: Vespasian also spelled Vespasian

Calculating the Temple Destruction of ma47, reported as 70AD in cy3888

Tiberius retired 12th yr of 27=15yrs, Caligula reigned 5yrs, Claudius reigned 12yrs

To get James Ussher's calculation, add 15 + 5 + 12 = 32yrs (AD38 + 32yrs = AD70)

In 1650, James Ussher Calculated 4004 BC to 70 AD, Ussher did not use Olympiads in his BC Calculations. In his AD Calculations, he counted Linear successions of Caesar, when there were two others during Tiberius. That error accounts for (047ma) count as 70AD

Yahshua was born 3rd yr of 187th Oly, 10 Oly's X 5yrs = 50, subtract 3 yrs = ma 0047

BC/AD calculations are the accepted chronology, & corrections are in cy/ ma Timeline

3889 After Temple destroyed, a Comet like a sword was over the city a whole year (Wars 6.5.3)

3897 Pompeii destroyed from eruption of Vesuvius on August 9 to 24, year 45AD killing Felix (Florus) former Judea Procurator & Drucilla (Druisus) daughter of Agrippa (Antiq 20.7.2) (056ma)

Titus reigns as Caesar after his father Vespasian, and dies 2 years later.

3899 Domitian reigns as Caesar for 15 years after Titus dies of disease – or poison.

3912 Domitian's 13th year, Josephus is 56 years of age. (Antiq 20.11.3) (071ma) (born on 015ma)

3914 Domitian dies 15th year of poison, succeeded by Nerva. (Antiq 20.11.3)

3916 Trajan is Emperor after Nerva. End of Josephus books, his age 60. (075ma)

* END OF JOSEPHUS BOOKS ****

In a summary, Paul was very well protected in his biographies of Acts, Romans, Hebrews, and Epistles. If you read the Epistles first; and then Acts, Romans, Hebrews. It should be quite apparent that Paul could not have written Acts, Romans or Hebrews. It was a totally different author.

That author identifies himself in Romans 16:22 as Tertius, who is Titus Flavius Josephus.

The Josephus books verify this and discreetly give the period actions identified as Saulus. (Saul of Tarsus) was the king's son, with his uncle the governor of Gaza, which moved troops and manipulated trials and killed Jews with impunity and untouchable by troops or government.

Josephus himself was interrogated by Caesar Tiberius for not reporting the Roman troops being use by Herod, and would have been killed, but saved by Bernice, Paul's grandmother, the Syrian kings sister.

In all, this story is too big to jot into a letter. A good reading of my ABCs the PDFs, listed A thru R on my theorybin site in Bible-Study. They should ground the information.

And final points where many are unaware! Why are we to seek to identify the false apostle?

Revelation 13 describes the 1st Beast of the first century, and the Tribulation 2nd Beast will make an image of that 1st Beast and bring it to life. And all those who follow him will NOT be in book of life. (Rev 13:11-18)

Why are we to study the times & are warned to “watch” for the Tribulation?

On the 4th yr of Tribulation, Heaven will cast out all demons & the Dragon.

There will be no sign but that of Jonah – who warned Nineveh of impending doom.

The Arrival of those Cast from Heaven, will appear in the clouds as a marvelous Messiah's return; and we were “warned” to know the expected events & dates, so as not to be misdirected & led astray for He is the Deceiver. The True Messiah arrives after the 7-year of Tribulation.

Tribulation 4th year the Deceiver will intently sway many by arriving as the expected return of the Messiah.

Arabs define Edom as Adom, & call Esau the second Adom, in honoring Islam

The Imposter will claim to be the 2nd Adam, and honor Paul's doctrine (Col 15:45-47, Rev 13:4)

The Imposter will claim to be the Promised Messiah, showing great powers (Rev 13:12)

The Imposter will build a statue of the 666th man, the false prophet Paul (Rev 13:14)

The Imposter will bring the Statue to life, & kill all who refuse to worship (Rev 13:15)

All on earth shall worship him, whose names are NOT in the book of life (Rev 13:8)

Ejection of the Beast will mirror Pre/Mid/Post teachings of Messiah's Arrival
His delusion will redirect the uninformed to concede in killing the righteous.

Death of the righteous will be as plucking the weeds before a harvest

Thank you for the opportunity to view your questions on an honorable topic. The expressed reviews are to my understanding from experience and study. My wish is to nudge a direction, not to throw up hurdles or barriers. The primary reason for caution is as others have found; that my own direction is often improved with a bump or nudge on occasion from those who reply.

Take note that the Tribulation of 7-Years began in 2017 and ends in 2024. By the end of 2024, Expect a “Famine in the Land,” not of bread or water, but of hearing the words of Yahweh! (Amos 8:11-12)
